Assistant Engineer—Tramway Department—appointment of.

120. Mr. C. S. Viswanatha Ayyar.—Will the Government be pleased to answer.—

(a) how long has the Tramway Department been working without an Assistant Engineer;

(b) was there any suggestion for the appointment of an Assistant Engineer by the Tramway Engineer;

(c) if so, what were the grounds for making the suggestion and when was the suggestion made;

(d) will the Government place on the table of the House the correspondence on this subject between the Tramway Engineer and the Government?

Mr. P. V. Subramania Ayyar.—(a) From 1st Vrischigam 1096 to 1st Thulam 1111.

(b) Yes.

(c) In view of the growing importance of the Tramway it was considered both necessary and desirable to appoint a well qualified hand on the Tramway establishment. The suggestion was made on the 21st June 1935.

(d) Government regret they cannot place the correspondence on the table. But the relevant papers are appended. (Vide Appendix I).
